Jerry Garcia's
First Acoustic Concert
in Oregon,
June 1982

Jerry Garcia, co-founder & leader of The Grateful Dead, is experimenting again. This time as acoustic artist. He is accompanied by long time friend, John Kahn.

John Kahn is a very talented bassist. John has performed with various groups, and he has played on all of Jerry's solo records over the past ten years.

Welcome!

Thank you for coming to this very special evening of acoustic music and Vaudeville Entertainment.

We have a theatre seating arrangement to ensure that your evening here will be comfortable and enjoyable, and to further ensure you have an enjoyable evening, we request that you respect the following guidelines: Please refrain from standing on the seats. Aisles must be kept clear at all times. Flash cameras are prohibited during all performances. There is no smoking, food or drink allowed anywhere in this fine facility. Please hold on to your ticket stub, if you leave the building at any time during this concert. You will be allowed to return only if you have your ticket stub in your possession.

As a community service we have allowed several organizations to set up information booths in the lobby. Also in the lobby, we have placed a mailing list, so we can keep you informed of upcoming concerts in this area.

Bringing you this concert is a real privilege for us.

We hope you enjoy this evening of acoustic music with Jerry Garcia.
