WBAI-FM, New York's listener-sponsored, alternative radio station, considered "the voice of the 60's", is back with new management to blow away the cobwebs of the 70's and reclaim the airwaves in the 80's. This fall will see the debut of Radio Free America, a variety talk show hosted by Abbie Hoffman. This live-audience program will be broadcast from Greenwich Village and air weekly on WBAI-FM as well as other non-commercial stations throughout North America.
