Midnight Moonlight

In Beverly Hills, uniformed police + colorfully clad flower-children gathered around as Jerry Garcia brought his band to town. The band took the stage for the late show on time, ripped through 4 songs + surprised all by taking a break! Which did them no harm as they ripped intensely through 4 classics, their own Sugaree, the band's Dixie, John Lerman's Dear Prudence and Dylan's Tangled... Another break during stomping ovation, which worried theatre managers, and they came back refreshed again ripping through Midnight Moonlight at M3 + My Uncle speed. AMAZING!

Thanx to Casey Cassette for review!

The rains came to California Jan Feb & Mar '83: floods and mudslides damaged our homes and hiways; monster surf and high tides ravaged our beaches and piers. In Oakland, clouds emptied their tears over the demolished shell that once was the Oakland Municipal Auditorium. "NO MORE TICKETS" a sign said, recalling the Dead's New Year's shows... The Dead went about their lives.. to the studio for a new album... Bobby & Midnights to Paris & London... Bobby & Jerry to the Civic playing at the Bammies to the elite of the SF music scene... to the desk where Jerry Garcia wrote the preface and Alton Kelley designed the cover for the Official Book of the Deadheads... to the stage and Jerry played & played & played. . The Deadheads Hotline announced the procedure for obtaining tix for Warfield Benefit Shows Mar 29-31. You needed 1) a genius to interpret it; 2) a banker to finance it; 3) good karma to bring it off (all 6m tix for 3 shows long gone)... Mike found two assistants, one technical the other metaphysical and hoped to keep the door open...

We Get Letters...

My 1st show was Ventura July 18. When I heard Man Smart, that was all it took! I've seen 11 shows since then. I can't help feeling ignorant when it comes to recognizing songs. What albums do you recommend? Shows are out of the question. I'm stuck in Idaho & snow. Let's get the DEAD to play Idaho-Haiha!ha! The Dead scene is something I wish I could turn the whole world onto! Thank you for MIKEL & the stickers. Hope to meet you sometime!

01, All I Want to Know is How Does Evry Song Go!
Got your name from Janet, an old Brooklyn kid just like you who has love for the DEAD just like me And you, I guess. She said to send SASE + you d send some kind of newsletter. Correct? Gosh, I hope so!
Eileen Santa Monica

Have seen what you're doing & am most happy. Keep up the incredible work. One man gathers what another man spills!
Bart W Hartford CT

I love what you're doing! I'm from a small college Northland, in Wisconsin. 700 students/120 Deadheads! Maybe I'll meet you on the run... Olaf Ashland Wisc
Got some stickers while waiting in line for New Years tix after the 30th show. A good gesture: it captured the attention of those still yipping. They got slapped on vans, backpacks-everywhere. KC Pittsburgh Pa

Keep up the good work - it's much appreciated Hope to see the Dead Down Under soon

Great idea! 5 of us from Vancouver came down for New Years, we camped out in front, we got tickets & got in. 2 had never seen the DEAD before. There's now 2 people here who'll never be quite the same again!

Enclosed is a photo of myself standing by the car with that infamous license plate (AIK020). Photo was taken Dec 31 at Oakland. Roger M Santa Clara Ca

Good times at last! Bobby & Midnights in London! What an intense show! Even did a couple of DEAD songs, Women Are Smarter and Touch of Grey. Heaps of Energy!

It was first get-together of DEAD HEADS for a while I started giving out a few of your magazines etc The response has been overwhelming! I wonder how you manage to break even in this game. Send as much as you possibly can... Any rumours of a tour to England?
Ciao Neal London England

Absolutely incredible! I think your newsletters are great. I read them several times to catch every word Mikel got me in touch with Phil from DED Because of both of you, I'm seeing a majority of April shows!
