The DEAD celebrated the passing of summer reviving US BLUES as encore, 5 of 9 shows: 1st & 3rd Eugene, Portland, Park West, and 2nd Red Rocks. At Boise, the Willie Dixon revival continued (he also wrote Spoonful) as Wang Dang Doodle opened the show. At Park West, it was One More Labor Day Night. Red Rocks, (this year's good-weather, visibility unlimited version) featured Playing Uncle John's/Playing night 1, and I Need A Miracle/Bertha, night 2. Next it's on to the Sikh-dom of Santa Fe, where Sun marks a birthday of the DEAD's NY connection, Mickey Hart...

We Get Letters...

Was bummed out, I never received a July newsletter. Have been reading old issues for 100th time over. I've split from Connecticut to Texas. Looking forward to Red Rocks, Santa Fe and Austin. Hope to see ya

Found a copy of MIKEL at my first DEAD concert (Portland). Please send more. Enclosed are six SASE's. Thank Julie & Chicago Ill

Went to DEADheads bash (Vol 2 No 1) while I was standing in parking lot a guy came out of the woods where he had just been camping. Inside the Bash, we had a hell of a good time (like everyone else). Later we partied for 9 hours and then all crashed. That was Barry. I never thought I'd read one of your letters or articles & really know the person.

Thank you. Tom Westmont NJ

Just got home from Stanford - another joyous weekend with the DEAD & friends. Now it's work again & love & plans for the next show. Stanford was irresistible, big party atmosphere, the song list show a happy, up feeling. What a marvelous way to live, very satisfying! Cathee & John Simi Valley CA

Stella Blue at Harrisburg was a highlight of my life. Then, during an instrumental break in Going Down the Road Feelin' Bad, I screamed "Smile for me Jerry!" HE turned in my direction & SMILED!!

Left for Israel during Ventura, starting my 3rd week. Fortunately a new group of students arrived today & I've already met 5 or 6 who seem up to what's happening. I'll be staying here at Tel Aviv University until '84. So as not to lose touch, keep sending MIKELS. It's people like you that make the whole trip worthwhile.

CROUCHED BENEATH THE DUST OF THE SATURDAY NIGHT STOCK CAR
RACES AT THE FAIRGROUNDS NEXT DOOR, THE NEAR-EMPTY BAR
WAS A MARKED CONTRAST TO THE SCENE OF HUNTER'S PREVIOUS SHOW, PLAYED TO A NEAR-CAPACITY CROWD IN THE ELEGANT TRALFAMADORE CAFE IN BUFFALO TWO NIGHTS EARLIER. (MY TAPE OF THE BUFFALO SHOW DIDN'T COME OUT BECAUSE I FORGOT
TO PUT BATTERIES IN MY MICROPHONES, SO I CAN'T PROVIDE THE SONG LIST, BUT I DO RECALL THAT IT INCLUDED SUGAR AND
BOX OF RAIN, AND THAT THE MASON'S CHILDREN WAS MIXTURED
AS "THAT OTHER ALTAMONT SONG.") HUNTER SEEMED MORE AT EASE WITH THE SMALLER CROWD, AND MIXED IN A LOT OF BANTER.
HE ASKED FOR SUGGESTIONS AS TO WHICH ROUTE TO TAKE IN HIS RENT-A-CAR FOR HIS NEXT SHOW IN VIRGINIA BEACH, AND SAID
OF HIS LOW ALBUM SALES: "THAT'S OKAY, I GET ROYALTIES FROM THE BIG BOYS; I DON'T HURT." HE ALSO HAD FUN SURPRISING THE

CROWD WITH UNFAMILIAR VERSES TO SONGS SUCH AS TRUCKIN':

"S.F. WAS A ROCKIN' TOWN
AT ONE TIME WE EVEN MADE THE SOUND
CAUTION, SPREAD THE WORD AROUND
BEFORE THOSE OTHER TRUCKERS SHUT US DOWN."

HUNTER STROLLED AROUND AND CHATTED WITH FANS BEFORE STARTING
THE SECOND SET, SO I GOT TO SHAKE THE HAND THAT FELLED "SHAKE
THE HAND THAT SHOOK THE HAND..." WHO NEEDED STANFORD?
