GRATEFUL DEAD ALPINE VALLEY EMBELLISHMENT

Imagine one of Wisconsin's play spots turned over to the dead for a weekend - All 100 rooms in 15 ten the lounge, tennis courts, golf course all overrun by DEADHEADS for 2 days you had to be there to pick up the energy. Sky divers around the shows by diving into the hillside amphitheatre. The Dead put on two special shows highlights of which were in the first show an opening sandwich - Music Never Stopped - Sugar - Music Never Stopped, and Morning Dew; and the second show inclusion of John Cipollina on guitar and Zakir Husin on drums in 2nd set.

To all the wonderful people I met on the tour. All the trades for stickers, posters, pins. All the thumbed rides, brief crossings of fates in the name of the Dead. The young fans! A Michael from Chicago area stands out with Peggy-o & Kosmik Charlie his favorite songs (at least you had to hear Peggy-o). The Northern Lights over St Paul after the show.

KC sunset pyrotechnics at Starlite Theatre; Terrapin in St. Louis. LOOK FORWARD TO SEEING MORE
