Right Back Where We Started From

Nikel returned to his native NY (Born Brooklyn some 69 days after Jerry Garcia first cried out in SP) to see the Dead play Madison Square Garden. Not like the good old Fillmore East but 2 HOT shows (Terrapin, Crazy Fingers) for the craziest fans anywhere. The Dead played well throughout New England, but the Maine show still sends chills up & down my spine...

The newsletter expands fourfold... Try your hand on our auction, you may make a winning bid on a Dead single or LP. Other Dead paraphernalia are available on a set cost basis. 1983 Dead Calendar info is here, too...

Thanks to all contributors. To keep getting the newsletter, send a self-addressed stamped envelope(s). But it is the extras: trivia, reviews, and comments that make this worthwhile

SOMETHING NEW: As far as we know the new Garcia songs' titles are - Keep Your Day Job; West LA Fadeaway; Touch of Gray. Weir's new one is - Throwing Stones. OUT OF A LIND AGAIN!

WE GET LETTERS I met you in Portland, ME. That was the best I've seen the Dead! I tried looking for you again in Boston next night, but couldn't find you. Keep in touch. Marc B Woonsocket RI

I do think that what you bring me for 40¢ is a steal-you're doing a fine job. I loved the Geography Game, the 10 yr old ad for ACF, the play lists. I'm pleased & privileged to receive your newsy letters and wish you health of the highest degree to continue vigorously.

One man reaps what another man sows. Toby P. Long I'm a 20 yr old college student who just ~~leach~~ saw my first Dead show Sept 18 at Boston Garden. Ecstatic energy! Place me on your mailing list-it has everything delightful + everything I need. Mark A Ashland Mass

Picked up a copy of your newsletter at Seattle I want to encourage you to do more. Enclosed a SASE and $1 to help the cause. Norm Sigey BC

Thanks much for time & energy to make up these newsletters. People like you make our lives and our Dead shows richer. Keep smiling. "strawberry" Bend Or

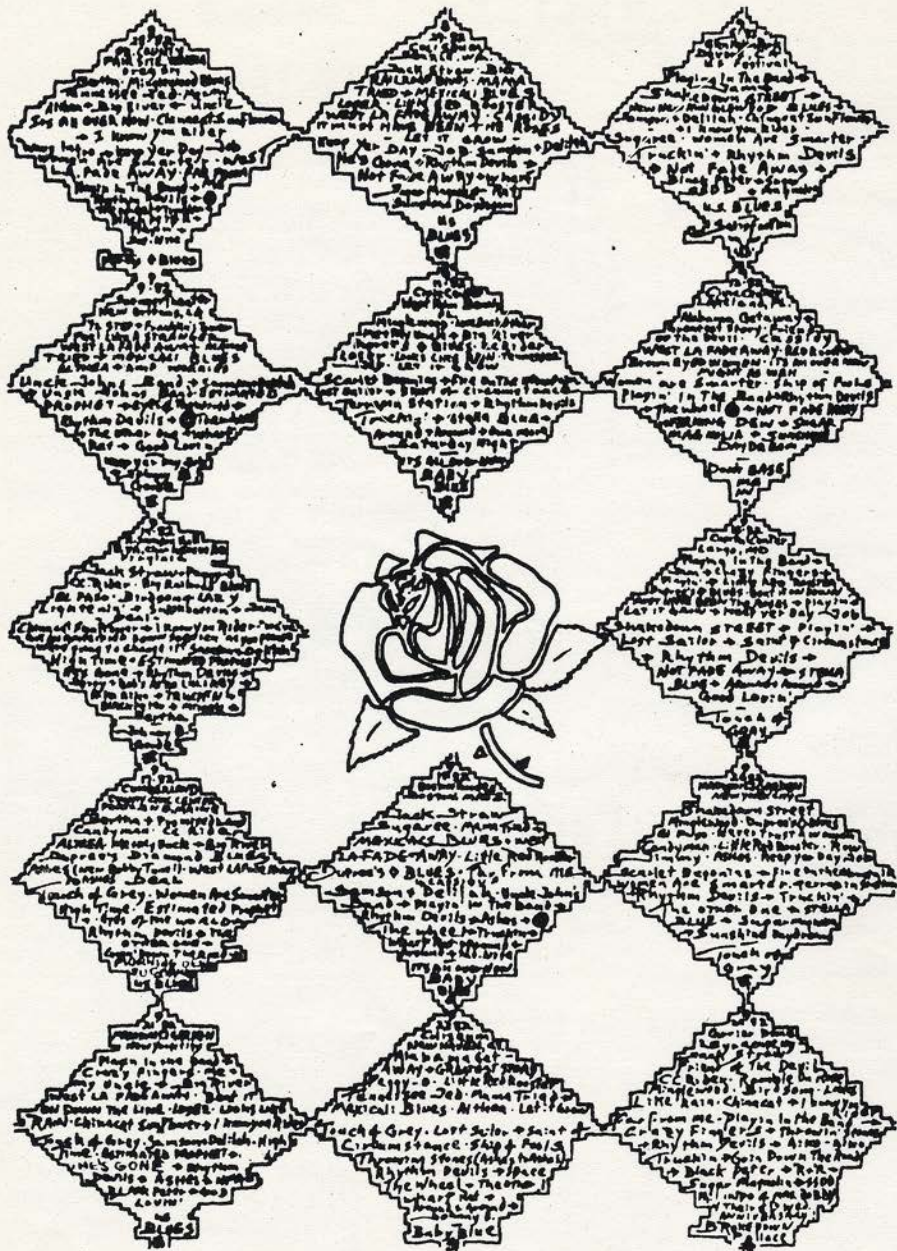

I just saw the Dead last night. It blew my mind. So full of energy! Uncle John's Band into Playing in the Band was the greatest!!! A Washington DC

DEAD COVERS Big River

I taught the weeping willow how to cry, cry, cry" A Johnny Cash song, appears on "I Walk the Line" Columbia album CS8990, which also includes versions of "Folsom Prison Blues" and "I Walk the Line." Johnny Cash, "endowed with a vibrant, virile Baritone voice...in a class with Hank Williams"
