Cheerleaders Lend Enthusiasm to School Functions

On the scene at parades, sports contests, pep rallies, and several other school functions are SHS's faithful nine. The cheering squad fights to the finish, whether the team be vanquished or victorious. Characteristic of this group are vigor, liveliness, and good lungs—all necessary attributes for a proper SHS cheerleader.

Leading the snake dance through Sheffield's streets terminates the bonfire pep rally preceding the Homecoming game.

Enthusiastically representing the sophomores and juniors are Betty Turley, Peggy McMahan, Patricia Roberts, Charlotte Lewis, and Ida Murray.

Continuing to bolster school spirit are senior cheerleaders Jean Stewart, Donna Conway, Susan Carter, and Donna Thatcher, head cheerleader.
